

THE TENANTS' MENACE: Attorney General goes after ex-cop accused of harassing rent-stabilized tenants to move out so landlord can charge higher prices

Attorney General Eric Schneiderman charges Anthony Falconite has forced his way into apartments, threatened tenants with eviction and offered them 'buyouts' so their landlords can charge market rent.

AT THE MOVIES

- 1 ScarJo is bright spot in bizarre, mindless film 'Lucy'
- 2 'Very Good Girls' is a cross between "Little Darlings" and an after-school special
- 3 Philip Seymour Hoffman gives a final performance in 'A Most Wanted Man'

Putin's daughter flees $3.3M Netherlands penthouse amid outrage over crash

Vladimir Putin's daughter has apparently fled her penthouse near Amsterdam as fury grows over Russia's suspected involvement in the shutdown of Flight 17.

'He was my son... my best friend': Staten Island boy, 3, drowns in pool behind day care center after tragic miscommunication between his parents

Edward Harris slipped into the above-ground pool behind the Mother Byrd Group Family Daycare center in Mariners Harbor after his father left him alone in a play area at the side of the facility.

Hollywood, we have a problem: Nearly every summer movie stinks

Kasem's body in hometown of wife's suspected lover: investigator

Jean Kasem, the wife of Casey Kasem, has been in a bitter battle with family of the late radio personality.

'SHE DIDN'T DESERVE TO DIE': Two