

For Immediate Release: July 31, 2014

MANHATTAN ELECTED OFFICIALS' STATEMENT ON THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S INVESTIGATION INTO LANDLORD STEVE CROMAN

MANHATTAN – Today, State Senators Daniel Squadron and Brad Hoylman, Assemblymember Brian Kavanagh, Borough President Gale Brewer, and Councilmembers Rosie Mendez and Margaret Chin released the following statement regarding landlord Steve Croman:

"Steven Croman's pattern of tenant harassment must come to an end. Tenants from his buildings have contacted us with accounts of chronic harassment and intimidation – including disruptive building maintenance, frivolous lawsuits, and most egregiously, the dispatching of a 'private investigator' to apartments to intimidate tenants.

"We've worked closely with a coalition of tenants and advocacy groups like Good Old Lower East Side, Cooper Square Committee, and the Urban Justice Center to address Croman's tactics of driving tenants, many of whom are rent regulated, out of their homes. We applaud the Attorney General's investigation into Croman, and we will continue to support tenants' efforts as it unfolds."